History

The Jupiter League was founded in 1895 as the Belgian First Division. The league was initially contested by 10 clubs, and the first champions were FC

Liège. The league was renamed the Jupiler Pro League in 2008 due to a sponsorship deal with the Jupiler beer brand.

The Jupiter League has undergone a number of changes over the years, including the of a play-off system in 2005. The play-off system was designed to make the league more competitive and to give more teams a chance to qualify for European competition.

Format

The Jupiter League is contested by 18 clubs. The season runs from August to May, and each club plays each other twice, once at home and once away. The top six clubs at the end of the regular season qualify for the play-offs, which are a single-elimination tournament. The winner of the play-offs is crowned champion of the Jupiter League.

The bottom two clubs in the Jupiter League are relegated to the Belgian Second Division. The top two clubs in the Second Division are promoted to the Jupiter League.
