At the heart of the novel is Tiger, a young woman haunted by a past she can barely remember. As the tides wash over the island, so too do the memories of a childhood tragedy that has left an unfillable void in her heart. Yearning for connection and a sense of belonging, Tiger embarks on a solitary journey to piece together the fragments of her shattered past.

Along the way, she encounters a cast of enigmatic characters who both help and hinder her quest. There is the enigmatic boatman, whose knowledge of the island's hidden secrets may hold the key to unlocking Tiger's memories. The wise old woman, who offers Tiger shelter and guidance, becomes a beacon of hope amidst the darkness of her past. And then there is the enigmatic stranger, who appears and disappears with the tides, leaving Tiger with a sense of longing and uncertainty.

As Tiger delves deeper into her past, she discovers that the island holds its own secrets, secrets that are intertwined with her own.
