A Journey Through Time and Adventure

Holdfast transports readers to the turbulent 18th-century frontier of Virginia. Join Meg Rowan, a courageous young woman, as she embarks on a perilous journey to rescue her kidnapped brother. Along the way, she encounters a diverse cast of characters, each with their own unique motivations and secrets.

Through Meg's eyes, we witness the complexities of life on the frontier, where danger lurks around every corner and the bonds of family and community are tested to their limits. With her quick-thinking and unwavering determination, Meg navigates treacherous landscapes and outwits cunning adversaries, proving her worth in a world where women are often underestimated.

Stunning Illustrations Bring the Story to Life

The Illustrated Edition of Holdfast elevates the reading experience to new heights. Renowned illustrator Sarah Jane Scott has meticulously crafted over 150 stunning illustrations that vividly depict the characters, settings, and action sequences.

Every stroke and brushwork captures the essence of the narrative, drawing readers into the heart of the story. The vibrant colors and intricate details bring the characters to life, allowing readers to connect with them on a deeper level. The illustrations enhance the immersive experience, making the frontier come alive before our very eyes.

Historical Accuracy and Timeless Themes

Holdfast is not merely an adventure story; it is also a testament to the enduring human spirit and the timeless themes that resonate with readers of all ages. Author Kate DiCamillo has meticulously researched the historical context of 18th-century Virginia, ensuring authenticity and accuracy in her portrayal of the setting and characters.

Through Meg's journey, we explore the indomitable nature of the human spirit, the importance of perseverance in the face of adversity, and the enduring power of family and friendship. Holdfast teaches valuable lessons about history, courage, and the human condition, leaving lasting impressions long after the final page is turned.
