Second Chance Summer at Cedar Ridge is a transformative summer program for troubled teens ages 13-17. The program provides a safe and supportive environment where teens can learn new skills, develop positive relationships, and gain a sense of accomplishment.

The program is located on a beautiful 100-acre campus in the mountains of North Carolina. The campus includes a variety of amenities, including a swimming pool, a gymnasium, a ropes course, and a hiking trails.

The program's staff is made up of experienced professionals who are dedicated to helping teens succeed. The staff provides individualized support and guidance to each teen, and they work to create a positive and supportive environment.

The program's curriculum is designed to help teens develop the skills they need to be successful in life. The curriculum includes a variety of activities, such as:

- Academic tutoring
- Vocational training

- Life skills training
- Outdoor adventure activities
- Therapy

The program also provides a variety of opportunities for teens to develop positive relationships. The teens live in small groups, and they participate in a variety of activities together. This helps them to build bonds with each other and to learn how to work together.
